LOCATION

Guildford is an extremely affluent town and one of the premier retailing destinations in the UK, outside of central London.

Surrey Hills AONB

The proximity to London make Guildford an attractive home for many wealthy commuters, with easy access to the South Coast and beautiful surrounding countryside. This has led to an affluent catchment, with the proportion of Guildford's population that earn between £70,000-£100,000 pa being the largest household income band, considerably higher than the UK average.

The population is boosted by tourists, attracted to the historic cobbled high street and proximity to Surrey Hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Guildford benefits from excellent road communications.

The town is situated off the A3, providing direct access to the M25 (Junction 10), 8 miles to the north. The A31 passes through Guildford and links with the M3 (Junction 4), via the A331.

≡ 36 mins to London Waterloo

The subject property is only a 10 minute walk (0.5 miles) from Guildford Railway Station, an interchange station for the North Downs Line towards Reading and the New Guildford Line, as well as being the main railway junction on the Portsmouth Direct Line.

This offers regular trains to London with fastest journey times of 36 minutes. Since 2021, Network Rail launched a £150m regeneration scheme to provide a new station building, residential & office space and attractive station plaza.

SITUATION

The property is situated at the eastern end of the cobbled High Street, Guildford's main pedestrianised retail thoroughfare.

The building occupies a prime position on the southern side of the street adjacent to the busy Milkhouse Gate alleyway leading to the Castle Car Park and in close proximity to the Tunsgate Quarter shopping centre.

Retailers in the immediate vicinity include Sainsbury's, Jigsaw, Anthropologie, Ba&sh, Barbour, Brora, Space NK, BOSS, Le Creuset, Hobbs & Megan's.

DESCRIPTION & ACCOMMODATION

The property is Grade II Listed from the early 16th Century, timber framed with a central door and further entrance to the left to Milkhouse Gate, a historic alleyway flanking the building.

Ground Floor

The property comprises a well-configured shop on the ground floor totalling 636 sq ft which has been fitted out to a very high standard with Molton Brown having carried out a £300,000 refit at the start of 2022.
